

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

STATUTES AND REGULATIONS.

I. UNDER the head of STATUTES, are classed all such Laws and Rules, respecting the Constitution and Government of the College, as are of a general and permanent nature. These are to be framed and enacted by the Authorities specified in the Acts of Parliament (53 Geo. III. cap. 155; 3 and 4 Wm. IV. cap. 85; 1 Vict. cap. 70; and 1 and 2 Vict. cap. 22), and are alterable only by the same.

II. Under the head REGULATIONS, are classed all such Orders and Rules as relate to points of detail in the interior government of the College, and are to be framed and enacted in like manner, and they shall be equally obligatory with the Statutes upon all the Members of the College.

III. The Finance and Home Committee shall superintend the execution of these Statutes and Regulations, together with the current business and affairs of the College, on which they may, from time to time, give their orders.

S T A T U T E S.

STATUTE I.

ON THE OFFICE OF VISITOR.

1. THE Bishop of London, for the time being, is Visitor of the College as well in Chief as in the Members, with authority to do all those things which pertain to Visitors, as often as to him shall seem meet ; excepting in such matters, relating to the alteration of the Statutes and Regulations, as are otherwise ordered in these Statutes, conformably to Act of Parliament.

STAT. I.

Office of Visitor.

2. An appeal shall lie to the Visitor from the Principal, or the Professors individually or collectively, in all cases which relate to their rights, powers, privileges, or duties ; such appeal shall be addressed to the Visitor, and forwarded to him, by the Principal, through the Court of Directors.

3. Any

3. Any Student publicly expelled, or finally removed from the College by sentence of the Principal in manner hereinafter mentioned, will be allowed to appeal to the Visitor against such sentence, at any time within two months after such expulsion or final removal; and the Visitor, on receiving such appeal, shall have the power of requiring the Principal to render him an account of the grounds of his decision, and if, on reviewing such grounds, it shall appear to him, that in passing such sentence of expulsion or removal, any existing Statute or Regulation has been violated or misinterpreted, he may reverse such sentence, and may, at once, restore the party appealing to his place in the College; or he may substitute for such sentence the punishment of rustication, or such inferior censure, as may appear to him conformable to the Statutes and Regulations. Provided always, that the appeal, so preferred by such expelled or removed Student, shall specify on the face of it the Statute or Regulation, the violation or misconstruction of which is complained of by the party appealing. Provided also, that when a sentence of public expulsion or final removal has been passed on any Student, he shall not be allowed to plead, in arrest of his immediate removal from the College, either the fact of his having having preferred an appeal to the Visitor against such sentence, or his intention to prefer such appeal.

STAT. I.

Office of Visitor.

And be it further provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed or understood to give to any Student, while remaining on the Establishment, and under the actual discipline and government of the College, the right of appealing to the Visitor against any sentence whatever.

4. A copy of the Statutes and Regulations of the College shall be deposited in the hands of the Visitor ; also copies of all and every successive additions and alterations in the Statutes and Regulations shall be transmitted to the Visitor, immediately after the making of such additions and alterations.

STATUTE II.

OFFICE OF PRINCIPAL.

The Principal of the College, who must be a Graduate of one of the Universities, is to have a general superintendence over every branch of the Establishment.

STAT. II.

Office of Principal.

2. With respect to the Professors, the authority of the Principal extends to the inspection of their conduct and management

in

in their several departments. He is to state to them such observations upon these points as he deems necessary, and may report the same to the Finance and Home Committee.

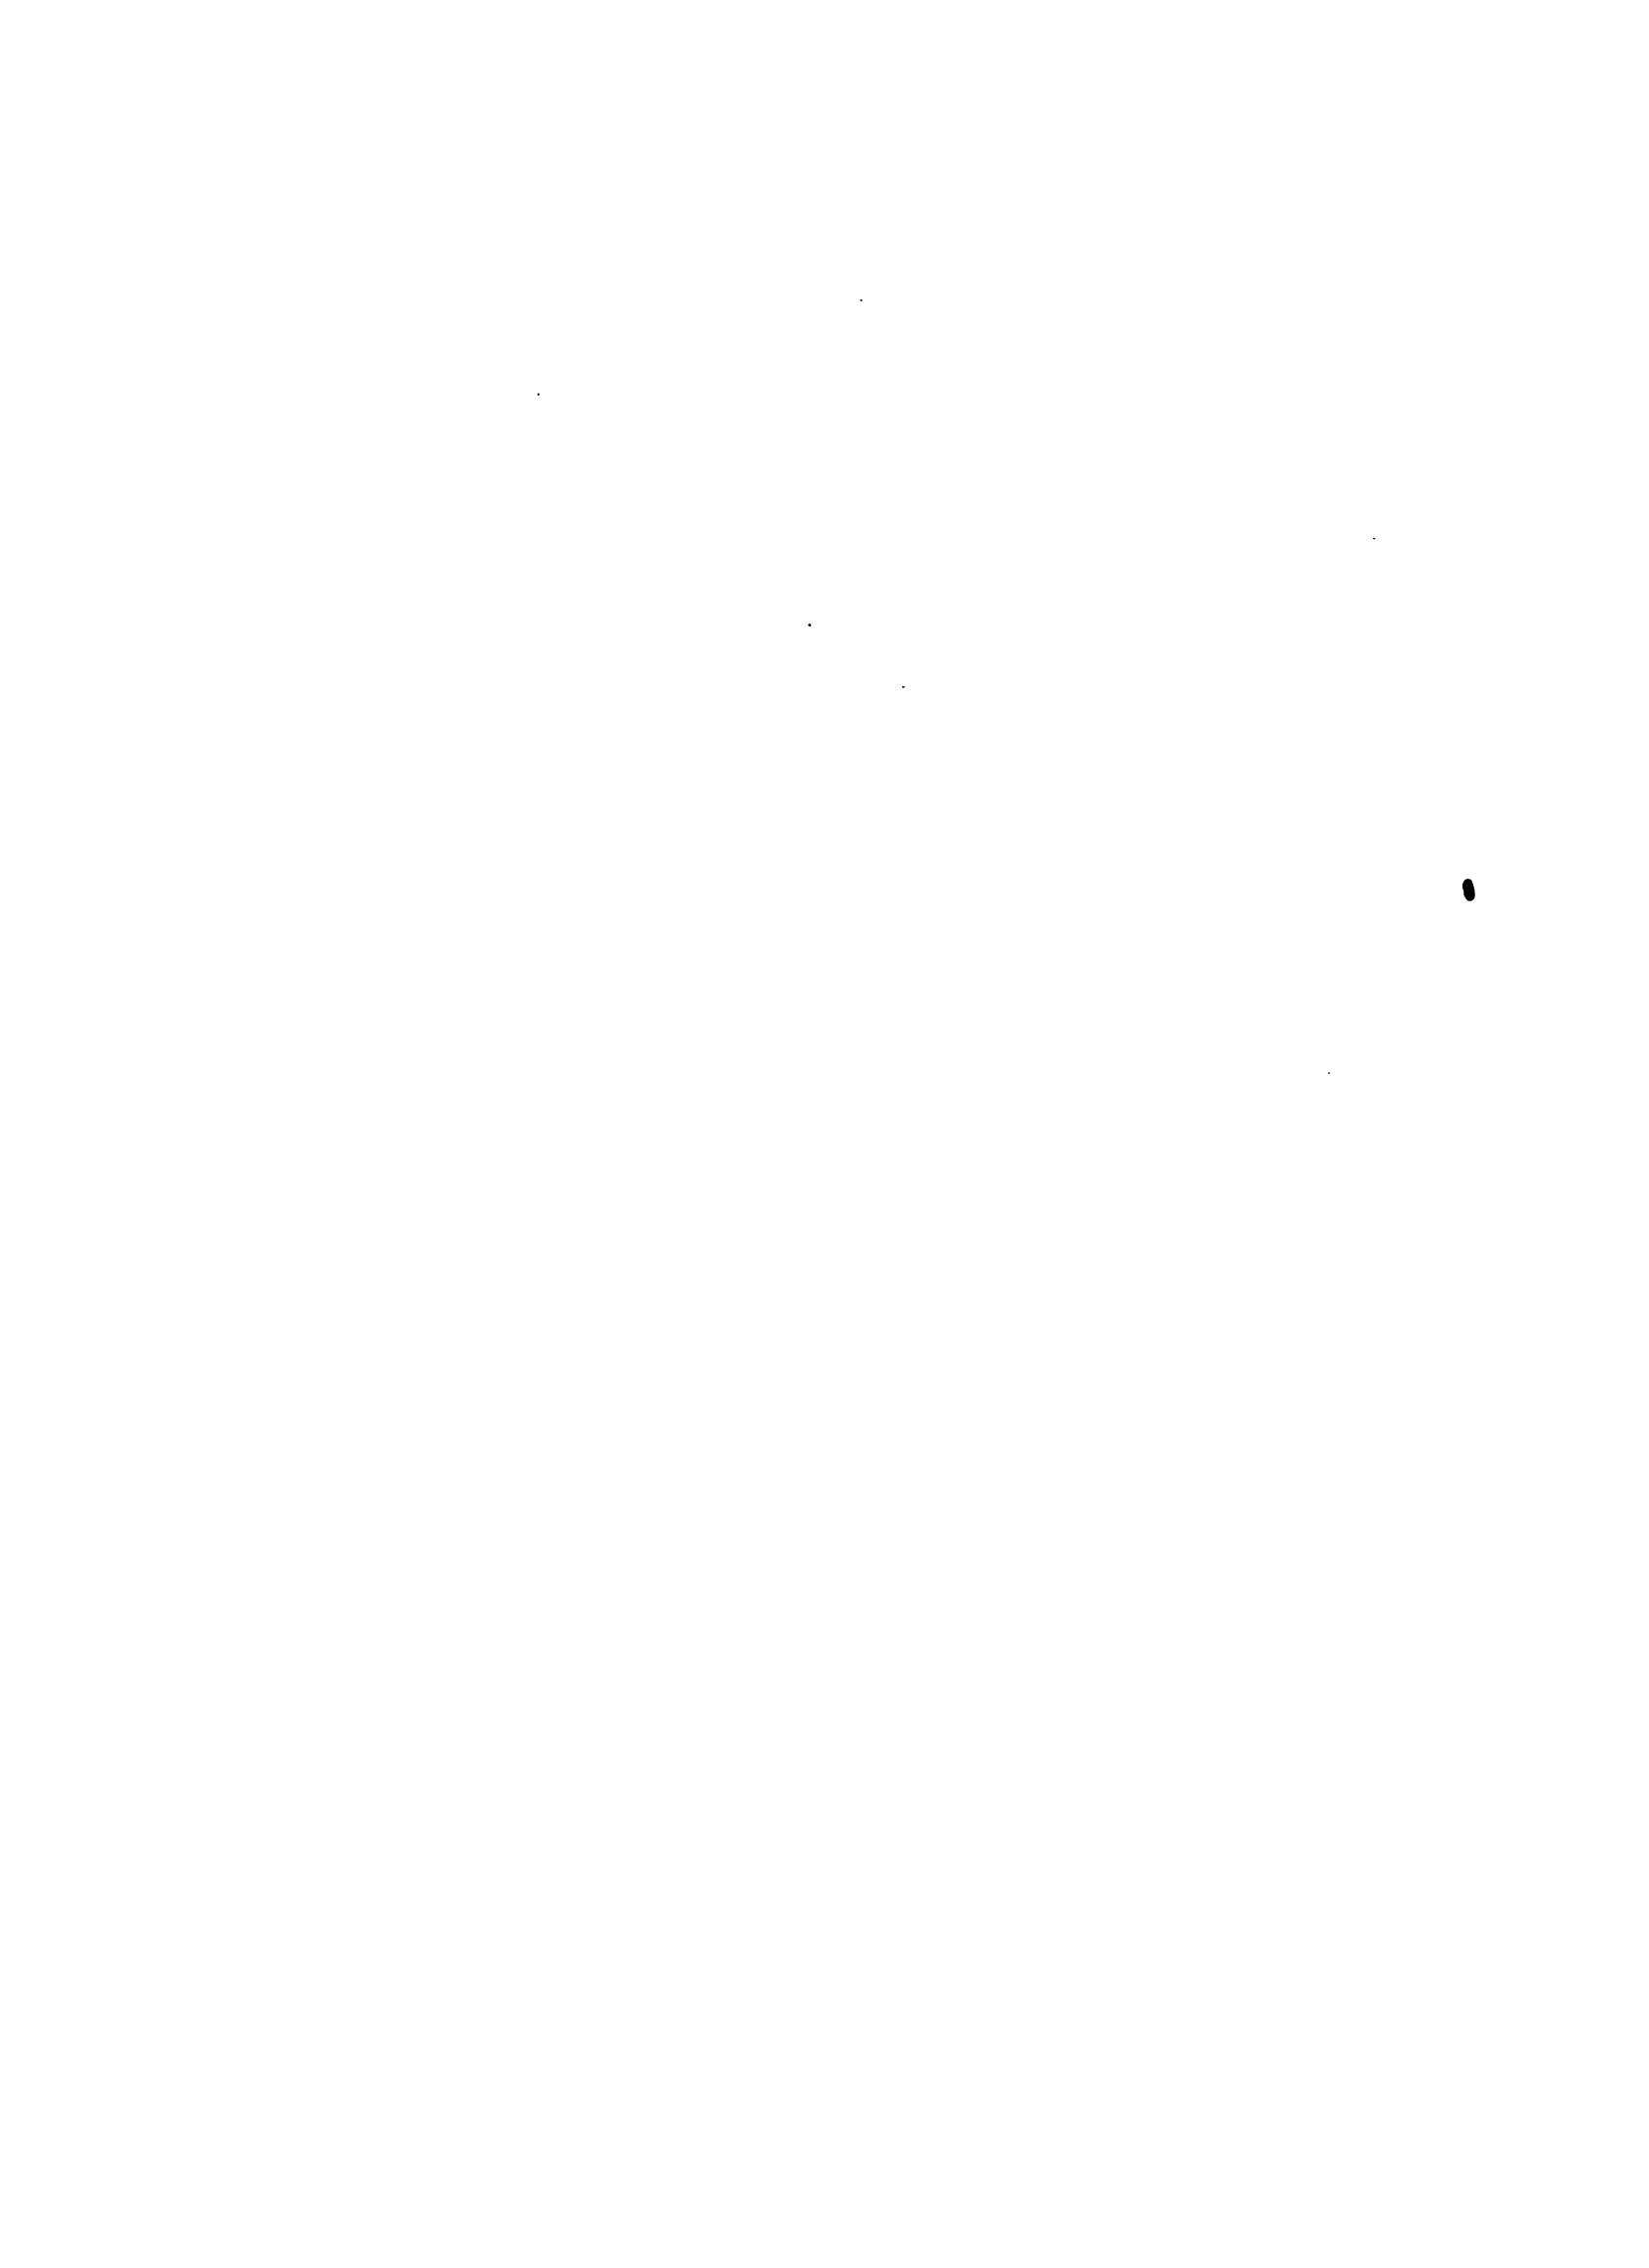

STAT. II.

Office of Principal.

3. The immediate superintendence and execution of the Statutes and Regulations shall be vested in the Principal.

4. In his administration of the discipline of the College, as it relates to the Students, it shall be his particular office to superintend their conduct in all the public duties which they have to perform, and to enforce obedience to the Statutes and Regulations of the College.

5. It shall be the duty of the Principal to receive Appeals from the subordinate Authorities and departments of the College, and to hear and decide in all cases of breaches of discipline. The punishment for these offences shall be solemn reprimands, impositions, with confinement to the College, &c.; but in such instances of misconduct as materially affect the discipline, welfare, subordination to authority, or the reputation of the College, or involving in its punishment the rustication, public expulsion, or final removal, of a Student, the Principal shall consult the Dean and Professors in the Classical and Mathematical Departments; or if the office of Dean be held by one of those two Professors, the senior of the remaining Resident Professors, the concurrence of three out of four of the individuals to be thus associated, being requisite to give effect to the decision.

STAT. II.

Office of Principal.

6. The orders of the Court, or their Finance and Home Committee, are to be transmitted to the Principal, and to be entered by the Registrar, at the date of the receipt, in a book to be kept for that purpose. The orders issued, or acts done by the Principal in consequence, are to be recorded in the same book by the Registrar. All other acts and proceedings are to be in like manner recorded, and particularly all letters addressed to the Court of Directors, or their Finance and Home Committee.

7. All material communications to the Court of Directors, or their Finance and Home Committee, from the Principal, are to be made in writing, and signed by him or his Locum-tenens, and countersigned by the Registrar.

8. All remittances of money from the Court of Directors, for the expenses of the College, shall be made to the Principal, who is to receive and control the expenditure of the same, and to audit all disbursements.

STATUTE

STATUTE III.

OFFICE OF DEAN.

1. In the administration of the discipline of the College, the STAT. III.
Principal shall be especially assisted by one of the Professors, under the title of Dean, to be selected by the Court of Directors with the approbation of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India. In case of the absence or illness of the Principal, the Dean is to be considered as his Locum-tenens, in all matters which relate to the discipline.
2. The Dean shall take charge, jointly with the Principal, of the ordinary discipline of the College, both within and without the walls ; and shall more particularly enforce a punctual attendance of the Students at Chapel and in Hall, and regularity in coming into College in the evening. It will also be his duty, in the administration of his office, to punish all breaches of discipline that are not of such a nature as to be brought before the Principal.

Office of Dean.

STATUTE IV.

OFFICE OF REGISTRAR.

1. The office of Registrar shall be held by one of the Professors or Assistant Professors, to be selected by the Court of Directors. It shall be the duty of the Registrar to keep the College Records and Accounts, and to lay them before the Finance and Home Committee at their visitations. He shall be associated with the Principal in a responsibility for the Company's property, and in controlling the expenditure of the Establishment; and during the illness or absence of the Principal, he shall be considered as his Locum-tenens, in every thing which respects the domestic affairs of the College.
2. The books more particularly committed to the care of the Registrar are—I. The Statute Book ;—II. The College Register ;—III. The Examination Book ;—IV. The Quarterly and Annual Account Books, &c. (See Regulations, Sec. II.)

STAT. IV.
Office of Registrar.

STATUTE V.

OFFICE OF LIBRARIAN.

The Office of Librarian shall be held by one of the Professors or Assistant Professors, to be selected by the Court of Directors. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to maintain due order and regularity in the concerns of the Library. He shall propose such books as, from the suggestions of the Principal and Professors, shall appear to be wanted in each department. He shall procure those which have been ordered, and see that all the Rules relating to the Library are strictly observed. (For these Rules, see Regulations, Sec. III.)

STAT. V.

Office of Librarian.

STATUTE VI.

ON THE DUTY OF PROFESSORS AND ASSISTANT PROFESSORS.

1. Each Professor shall be amenable to the Principal for the due execution of his Office, and the conduct or proceeding of any Professor, may be inquired into by him, on any representation

STAT. VI.

Duty of Professors and Assistant Professors.

made to him by any of the Professors, touching such conduct or proceeding. A copy of all such representations and proceedings thereupon, to be transmitted to the Finance and Home Committee.

STAT. VI.

Duty of Professors and Assistant Professors.

2. The Professors or Assistant Professors resident within the precincts of the College shall attend College Prayers, and all of them shall regularly attend the public Service of the Church.

3. It shall be the particular duty of each Professor and Assistant Professor to enforce a regular attendance, due preparation for, and decorous behaviour at his Lectures, on the part of the Students, by imposing appropriate punishments, in cases of their failure in any of these respects.

4. It shall be his further duty to assist, to the best of his judgment, in supporting the general discipline of the College ; and he is to report such serious instances of breach of discipline, or other misbehaviour, he may become acquainted with, to the Dean, or to the Principal, according to the nature of the offence. Slighter offences he may punish on his own authority.

5. All the Professors, whether Laymen or Clergymen, and whether resident in the College, or out of it, shall take an active part in its daily routine.

6. The

6. The Lectures of the Professors shall be so arranged, that STAT. VI.
each Student shall attend two, at least, every day.

Duty of Professors and Assistant Professors.

STATUTE VII.

ON THE SERVICE OF THE CHAPEL.

1. A Form of Prayer, consisting of a Selection of Prayers from STAT. VII.
the Service of the Church of England, together with a Prayer for the College, shall be read in the Chapel every morning and evening, at such hours as the Principal shall appoint, by the Clerical Members of the College in rotation, with the exception of the Principal and Dean, whose presence in their places is particularly required, to superintend the conduct of the Students, and to secure attention and decorum during the Service.
2. On Sundays, in the forenoon, the Church Service shall be read, and a Sermon preached by the Principal and Clerical Professors in their turn. After Dinner, the Evening Service shall be read, at an hour appointed by the Principal.
3. On two Sundays in each Term, to be appointed by the Principal, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be administered by the Principal or the Dean, assisted by one of the Clerical

Clerical Professors, and shall be attended by such of the Students as are qualified to partake of this solemn ordinance.

STAT. VII.

Service of the Chapel.

4. In ordinary cases of non-attendance or misbehaviour at Chapel, the defaulters shall be punished by the Dean ; but all cases of great irregularity in this respect shall be referred to the Principal.

STATUTE VIII.

ON THE PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS.

1. At the end of each Term, a public Examination of all the Students, in their respective Departments, shall be held by the Principal and Professors. Each Professor shall examine the classes belonging to his own Department ; but, at the same time, the Examination shall be open to the Principal and all the Professors. At the conclusion of the Examination, the Professors shall separately prepare lists of the Students in their several Departments, arranged according to their respective merits ; from these lists the Principal shall form a general list of all such Students as may be considered by him entitled to honourable distinctions, or are to be recommended to the Finance and Home Committee, for medals and prizes.

STAT. VIII.

Public
Examinations.

STATUTE IX.

ON THE ADMISSION, RESIDENCE, AND DEPARTURE OF STUDENTS.

1. The College year shall be divided into two Terms. The first Term shall commence on the 19th January and end on the 30th June; the second Term shall commence on the 10th September and end on the 15th December.
2. At the discretion of the Principal, it shall be in his power to grant leave of absence to the Student at Easter, provided such absence shall not exceed the period of fourteen days. Absence from College for a period exceeding thirty days in the course of the first term, or twenty days in the course of the second Term, will absolutely exclude a Student from the benefit of such Term, however occasioned, whether from sickness or other inevitable accident; but in the event of an infectious Disease, which, by the return of any Student so affected, may be communicated, and the health and safety of the other Students thereby endangered, the Court of Directors shall have the power of granting the Term to such Student, although he may have been absent more than thirty days in the first, or twenty days in the second Term. STAT. IX.

Admission,
Residence, and Departure of
Students.

3. The absence of any Student from the College for a less period than thirty days in the first Term, or twenty days in the second Term, will preclude him the benefit of such Term, unless he shall have leave from the Principal for the period he may have been so absent, or shall produce to him satisfactory reasons for his absence.

4. No young man shall be admitted into the College who has been expelled from any place of Public Education, unless, upon representation made by the Parent, or nearest Friend of the young man so to be nominated, conjointly with the person wishing to nominate him, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Visitor that the young man's expulsion was not such as ought to exclude him from the benefit of such Nomination. Upon this joint representation, the Visitor is empowered to authorize the young man's admission into the College; provided always, that if within one year after his admission the Report of the Principal touching his conduct shall state that he cannot be continued in the College without evil example and prejudice to the discipline of the place, such admission shall be to all intents null and void.

5. No

5. No young man will be nominated to the College who has been dismissed from the Army or Navy. STAT. IX.
Admission,
Residence, and Departure of
Students.
6. No person shall, in future, be nominated to the College as a Student till he has completed the sixteenth year of his age.
7. Every person to be admitted into the College, must present himself to the Principal on the first day of the Term, unless satisfactory reasons be assigned for his not doing so; and he shall bring with him his Certificate of Nomination from the Honourable Court of Directors, and the Certificate from the India-House, of his having made the payment due from him on account of the College.
8. No Student shall be permitted to leave College during Term time without some urgent reason, which reason must be expressed in a letter from his Parents, Guardians, or some near Relation, addressed to the Principal. (See Regulations, Sect. v. Clause 5.)
9. No Student shall be considered as having kept his first Term, unless he shall have obtained at the Public Examination which closes it, the mark of Proficiency at least in one European Department, and in each of the Oriental Departments, in which he is obliged ultimately to pass his Test: nor his second and third third Term, unless he shall have obtained the same mark at least in two European Departments, and in the Oriental Department as before.

STAT. IX.

Admission,
Residence, and Departure of
Students.

10. And no Student belonging to the fourth Term shall be entitled to the Certificate necessary to his appointment, unless, at the Examination which closes that Term, he shall obtain the mark of Proficiency, or above, in at least two European Departments, besides passing the ultimate Test in the Oriental Department, as prescribed in the Regulations, Section viii. Clause 2.

11. No person nominated to the College after the 10th April 1839 can be appointed a Writer to India till he shall have resided four Terms at least in the College, and shall have obtained a Certificate, signed by the Principal, of his having conformed himself to the Statutes and Regulations of the College.

12. To prevent any misapprehension as to the meaning of the foregoing clause, that such residence, or any certificate thereof, will entitle a Student to an appointment, who may not be deemed qualified for such appointment, it is declared, that no Student whatever shall be entitled to any appointment as a Writer, unless the Court of Directors, in their discretion, shall see fit to make it, notwithstanding any such residence or certificate.

STAT. IX.

Admission,
Residence, and Departure of
Students.

13. The general form of this Certificate shall be as follows:—

“ I, [Principal's name] Principal of the East-India College, do hereby testify, that A. B., having been nominated a Student of the College by the Court of Directors of the Honourable East-India Company, has resided therein four Terms, and has duly conformed himself to the Statutes and Regulations of the College.

“ The said A. B. has also attended the Public Examinations of _____ and at the examination of _____ obtained [here shall be stated all the medals, prizes, or honourable distinctions which a Student has obtained during his residence in College].

“ Given under the College seal, and signed by the Principal this _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord _____

“ (Countersigned)

“ _____ Registrar. (Signed) _____ Principal.”

14. No Student, who has been rusticated with the loss of a Term, shall be considered as having conformed himself to the Statutes and Regulations of the College, till he shall have resided one Term, at least, subsequent to such rustication. STAT. IX.

15. Rustication for a period exceeding thirty days in the first Term, or twenty days in the second Term, will not only involve the loss of a Term, but will, in most cases, also carry with it the loss of a year's rank ; the year in which a Student is to take rank being determinable by that in which he leaves the College.

16. The rank of all the Students shall be determined by the Certificate of the Principal, which shall be granted with reference to the industry, proficiency, and general good behaviour of the Students, and the Certificate shall be of three kinds :

The first shall be given to those who possess the highest degree of merit.

The second to those who have distinguished themselves by general good behaviour, and attention, both to the Rules of the College and their Studies ; and

The third to those of whom nothing more can be said than that they have conformed themselves to the Statutes and Regulations of the College.

Such Rank to take effect only in the event of the Students proceeding to India within six months after they are so ranked.

Should

Admission,
Residence, and Departure of
Students.

Should any Student delay so to proceed, he shall only take rank among the Students classed at the last examination previous to his departure for India, and shall be placed at the end of that Class in which Rank was originally assigned to him.

17. The general form of Certificate prescribed in the thirteenth clause of this Statute shall, in every particular case, be so far varied and modified, as to render it conformable to the tenour of the Certificate here described.

STAT. IX.

*Admission,
Residence, and Departure of
Students.*

STATUTE X.ON THE CONDUCT AND PUNISHMENT OF STUDENTS.

1. The Students shall wear their academical habits at Chapel, Lectures, and dinner, and when they wait upon the Principal or Professors, nor shall they go beyond the precincts of the College without it, except by permission.

STAT. X.

*Conduct and Punishment
of Students.*

2. No Student shall be absent from Chapel, Hall, or Lectures, nor be out of College after the gates are closed, without permission.

3. The apartments of the Students shall at all times be accessible to the Principal and Professors; and if any obstacle be opposed to their entrance, the necessary measures to remove it shall immediately be taken, and the person offending subject to exemplary punishment. Each Student shall be responsible for any disorderly conduct, or any irregularity, which takes place in his room, when the actual offender cannot be discovered.

STAT. X.

Conduct and Punishment
of Students.

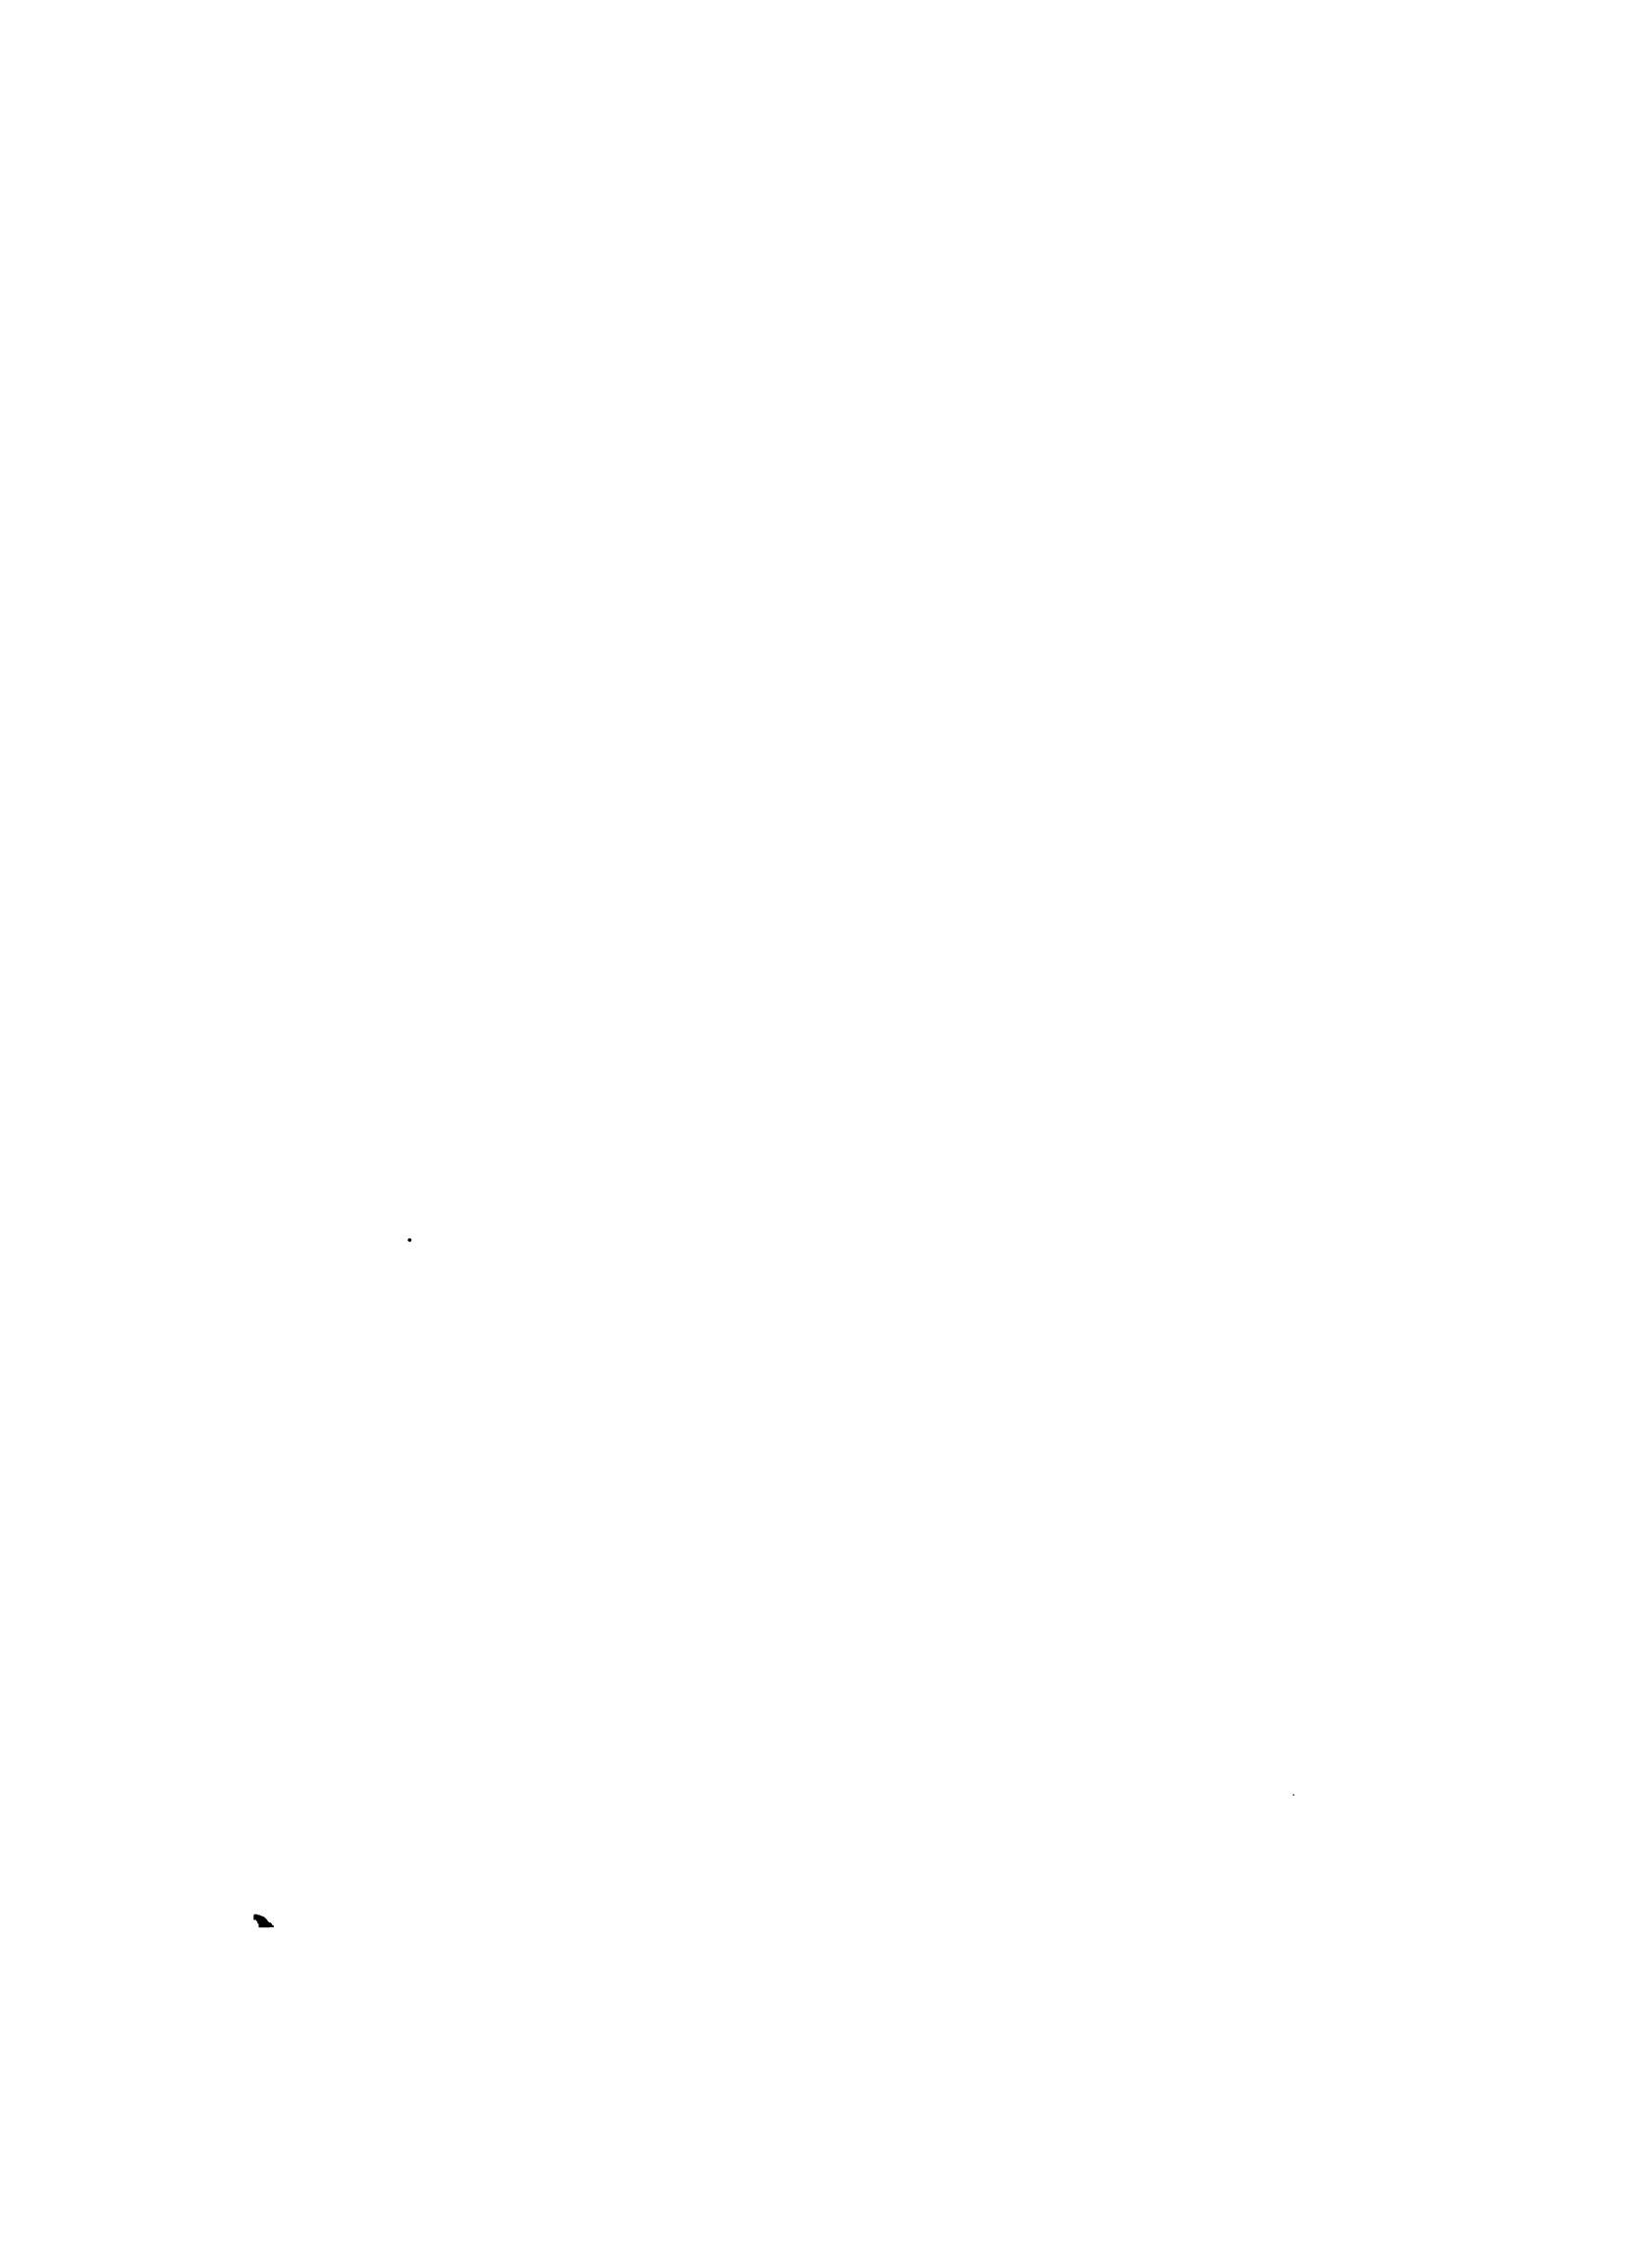

4. Riding, driving, keeping dogs or other animals, playing at cards, billiards, and games of chance, are strictly prohibited.

5. Any Student introducing fire-arms or fireworks into the College, or discharging fireworks therein, or in whose possession either shall be found, shall be punished for the first offence by rustication, and for the second offence by loss of rank, final removal, or expulsion, according to the circumstances of the case.

6. The discharging of fire-arms in the College shall be punished by immediate expulsion.

7. The Students are strictly prohibited from introducing into the College wine or spirituous liquors, without express permission ; and from frequenting inns or taverns, or contracting debts at them. Any violation of this rule will be considered as a very grave offence ; any flagrant instances of it shall be punished by rustication, loss of rank, final removal, or public expulsion, according to the circumstances of the case.

8. If any student be detected in going out of, or coming into College clandestinely after the gates are closed, he shall for the first offence be confined to the College for a time not exceeding a month, at the discretion of the Principal ; for the second offence he shall be rusticated with the loss of a term ; and for the third offence deprived of rank, finally removed, or publicly expelled the College, according to the circumstances of the case. STAT. X.
Conduct and Punishment of Students.
9. The most respectful and orderly demeanour is required at the College Lectures. Any violation of this rule shall be immediately punished, and repeated or aggravated violations of it shall be referred to the Principal, and treated as a very serious offence.
10. If any Student, either in exculpation of himself or another, makes an assertion which afterwards proves to be a wilful falsehood, he shall for the first offence be rusticated with the loss of a term ; and for the second, finally removed from, or publicly expelled the College.
11. The Students shall not only be required to abstain from all vicious, immoral, and irregular conduct, but they are enjoined on every occasion, and particularly in Chapel, Hall, Lecture Rooms, and Quadrangle, to behave with the propriety and decorum of gentlemen.

12. The Principal, with the advice of the Professors (according to the provision in Statute II, Clause 5), shall possess the power,

STAT. X.

*Conduct and Punishment
of Students.*

- I. To rusticate offending Students for one or more terms.
- II. To remove them finally from the College.
- III. To expel them publicly.

13. Public expulsion shall take place only in consequence of base or immoral conduct, or of some deliberate act of personal insult to the Principal, Professors, or Assistant Professors.

14. A Student publicly expelled the College shall not be admitted into the Company's Military Seminary, nor into the Company's Civil or Military Service in India.

15. The sentence of final removal, or public expulsion, shall in all cases be subject to an appeal to the Visitor, as provided for in Statute I. Clause 3.

REGULATIONS.

SECTION I.

THE VISITATION OF THE FINANCE AND HOME COMMITTEE.

1. THE Finance and Home Committee, consisting of not less than three Members of the said Committee, or of the Court of Directors, shall, if they think fit, visit the College quarterly, for the purpose of inquiring into the general state of the Institution.

SECT. I

Visitation of the Finance and Home Committee.

2. At the conclusion of each Term, there shall be a meeting of the Committee, and such other Members of the Court of Directors as choose to attend at the College, with the Clerk of the College Department, in order to receive the Report of the Principal, as to the result of the General Examination of the Students held at those periods. Upon this occasion, there shall be laid before the Committee the different Books of Record and with respect to the sum to be laid out.

4. Books lost or damaged, shall be replaced by the person who had them from the Library. No Student leaving the College shall be entitled to his certificate until he has replaced any books which may have been lost by him, or damaged while in his possession ; and it shall be the duty of the Librarian, and of the Registrar, to enforce this Rule.

5. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to see that all books taken out of the Library are duly returned to it. At the end of each term he shall collect all the Books so taken out, and shall examine the state of the Library, and shall report the same to the Principal.

6. At the end of the Term preceding the Summer Vacation, a visitation of the Library shall be held by the Principal and Professors, previously to which, all Books whatever taken out of the Library are to be returned.

SECTION IV.

ON THE ATTENDANCE, &c. AT LECTURES, CHAPEL, AND HALL; AND COMING INTO GATES.

1. The Lectures shall be given at such times as shall be fixed by the Principal. SECT. IV.
Attendance
at Lectures,
Chapel, and
Hall; and coming into
Gates.
2. The most respectful and orderly demeanour is required of the Students during their attendance at Lectures (vide Statute X., Clause 9).
3. To secure the regular attendance of the Students at Morning and Evening Prayers, and whenever Divine Service is performed, two Lists of those persons who are absent shall be made out by the College Servant appointed for that purpose; one to be given to the Principal and the other to the Dean, and Defaulters punished according to Statute VII., Clause 4: authority being vested in the Principal or Dean to dispense with the attendance at Divine Service of those Students who may profess the Roman Catholic Religion, and to grant them permission to attend the Roman Catholic Minister in the Neighbourhood of the College; and that the Students who may avail themselves of such permission, be required to produce to the Dean a Certificate from the Minister, that they have attended the Service of his Chapel ; and in failure thereof, and no satisfactory reason being assigned why such Certificate is not produced, they shall be punished by the Dean ; and that cases of great irregularity be referred to the Principal.

SECT. IV.

Attendance
at Lectures,
Chapel, and Hall ; and coming into
Gates.

4. In the absence of the Principal, the Senior Professor in office shall preside in the College Hall, and those Professors who reside within the walls of College, shall be more particularly expected to dine at the table provided for that purpose.

5. The Students shall dine every day in the Hall, unless permitted to be absent by the Principal or Dean. A list of absentees shall be made out daily, which list shall be delivered to the Principal or Dean, for the punishment of defaulters.

6. The College Gates shall be shut every evening at such hour as the Principal shall appoint for the winter and summer months, after which no Student shall either go or remain out of College without permission. A list of such Students as go out of or come into College after the gates are closed shall be kept by the Porter, who shall deliver it to the Dean the next morning. In ordinary cases, the defaulters shall be punished by the Dean ; but all instances of great irregularity in this respect shall be referred to the Principal.

SECTION

SECTION V.

ON THE CONDUCT AND PUNISHMENT OF STUDENTS.

1. Every Student, on returning to College at the beginning of the Term, shall immediately wait upon the Principal (or in his absence upon the Dean), and deliver to him the Certificate of his having made the requisite payment at the India-House on account of the College.
2. The whole time passed at the College by the Student is probationary, but the first Term is to be considered as such in a more particular sense; and if any Student shall not, in the judgment of the Principal, give satisfaction in that Term, he will not be permitted to return to the College, or be permitted after such time, and under such conditions, as may appear expedient to the Principal.
3. The Students shall not absent themselves from the Lectures of the Professors without their permission.
4. When a Student has occasion to keep his room on account of illness, he shall apply to the Principal or Dean for an Aegrotat, which is to be sent to those Professors from whose Lectures he has occasion to absent himself. This Aegrotat must written Exit shall then be delivered into the hands of the Registrar, to be inserted by him in a book kept for that purpose ; and all persons remaining out of College beyond the time for which the Exit is granted, shall either lose their Term, or be punished at the discretion of the Principal.

SECT. V.

Conduct and Punishment
of Students.

8. Any Student who, while under sentence of confinement to the walls of the College, shall be seen beyond the prescribed bounds, shall, for the first offence, have the period of his confinement doubled ; and for the second offence, during the same confinement, shall be rusticated with loss of Term.

9. The Principal is to take into consideration, at the commencement of each Term, the names of the Tradespeople at Hertford and Hoddesdon with whom the Students should be permitted to deal, for such necessary articles as they may require to purchase upon credit, during such Term ; and they shall furnish the Students with a list of the names so fixed upon at the beginning of each Term. The Students shall not be at liberty to take goods upon credit of any other persons. The bills are to be sent to the Registrar, at the close of every Term, for his examination and approval. They shall then be settled by the Students or their Friends ; and no certificate shall be granted to any Student, on his finally leaving the College, till such approved debts are paid. SECT. V.

Conduct and
Punishment
of Students.

10. The Students are not to go beyond the walls of the College, nor to engage in any sports or games, nor to practise music, from breakfast-time till one o'clock. Any Student found beyond the precincts of the College without his academical habit, will be punished.

11. No sports or games, or noisy assemblages, will be allowed in the Staircases or Quadrangle. Strict decorum is required in going to and from Chapel.

12. No Student shall be absent from Chapel or from Hall, nor be out of College after the gates are closed, without permission from the Principal or Dean, or an invitation from a Professor; and in all cases where permission has been obtained from the Principal, or an invitation given by a Professor, the Student shall give information of it to the Dean.

13. The Students are to separate and go to their respective apartments at the ringing of the bell at eleven o'clock at night, and all lights and fires are to be out before twelve. Any obstruction given to the Persons authorized to go round every night, and to visit the rooms, for the purpose of seeing that this rule is

is observed, will subject the offender to be punished as for an act of contumacy.

SECT. V.

Conduct and Punishment
of Students.

14. The Students are desired to observe, that the Servants are particularly required to report to the Principal or Dean, any serious offences against the regulations of the College. If they know of any drinking parties, or observe fire-arms in their rooms, and fail to report, or if they should be detected in introducing wine or spirits into the College for any Student, they will immediately lose their places.

SECTION VI.

ON THE CHOICE OF APARTMENTS, AND ON THE REPARATION OF THE DAMAGES DONE TO THE COMPANY'S PROPERTY BY THE STUDENTS.

1. The Students, in the first instance, shall have the choice of rooms, according to their seniority of admission. Those Students who have been one Term or more at the College, and who wish to change their rooms in the following Term, must apply for permission to the Registrar, without which permission no change will ever be allowed.

SECT. VI.

Choice of Apartments, and Reparation of Damages.

2. Each

2 Each Student shall be responsible for the injury done to the College property in his own apartment; and in case of any other damage, the Students of each Staircase, or the whole body collectively, must defray the expenses of the repairs, and an account of the share which falls to each will be sent to his Friends for payment.

3. At the end of each Term, a visitation of the Students' apartments will take place, and an estimate will be made of the injury which the Company's property in each room has sustained. As the account founded on this estimate will be sent for payment to the Student or his Friends, it will be incumbent on each Student to leave in his apartment, at that time, all the College furniture which he has had in use.

4. If any books belonging to the Library be lost or damaged, by writing, drawing, or any improper usage, the Student by whom they were taken out must replace them by new copies or sets, or pay the value of the same, in case such books are not to be purchased in this country.

SECTION VII.

ON THE PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS, AND THE MODE OF INSERTING IN A STUDENT'S CERTIFICATE THE REWARDS OF MERIT ASSIGNED TO HIM AT THE SAME.

1. About a fortnight previous to the commencement of each Public Examination, the Principal and Professors shall meet, for the purpose of arranging the plan of it, in conformity with Statute VIII, and of assigning to each Professor and Assistant Professor his proper days of examination.

SECT. VII.

Public
Examinations,
and Rewards
of Merit.

2. At the Summer and Winter Examinations respectively, a list shall be made out of the Students in their respective Terms, arranged according to their merits in the several Departments; also, a list of the Students who shall have deserved Medals, Prizes, and other honourable distinctions. This latter list shall be read before the Students publicly assembled at the visitation of the Committee; and such Students as have obtained medals or prizes, shall then receive them from the hands of the Chairman or President of the Committee.

3. Besides the two public Examinations, there shall be an intermediate and more private Examination, at such time previous to Easter as the Principal shall appoint. The results of this Examination shall be regularly recorded, and shall be allowed to affect the position of the Students at the subsequent public Examination, if the Principal shall think proper, and in such manner, and according to such rules, as he shall deem it expedient to make.

Public
Examinations,
and Rewards
of Merit.

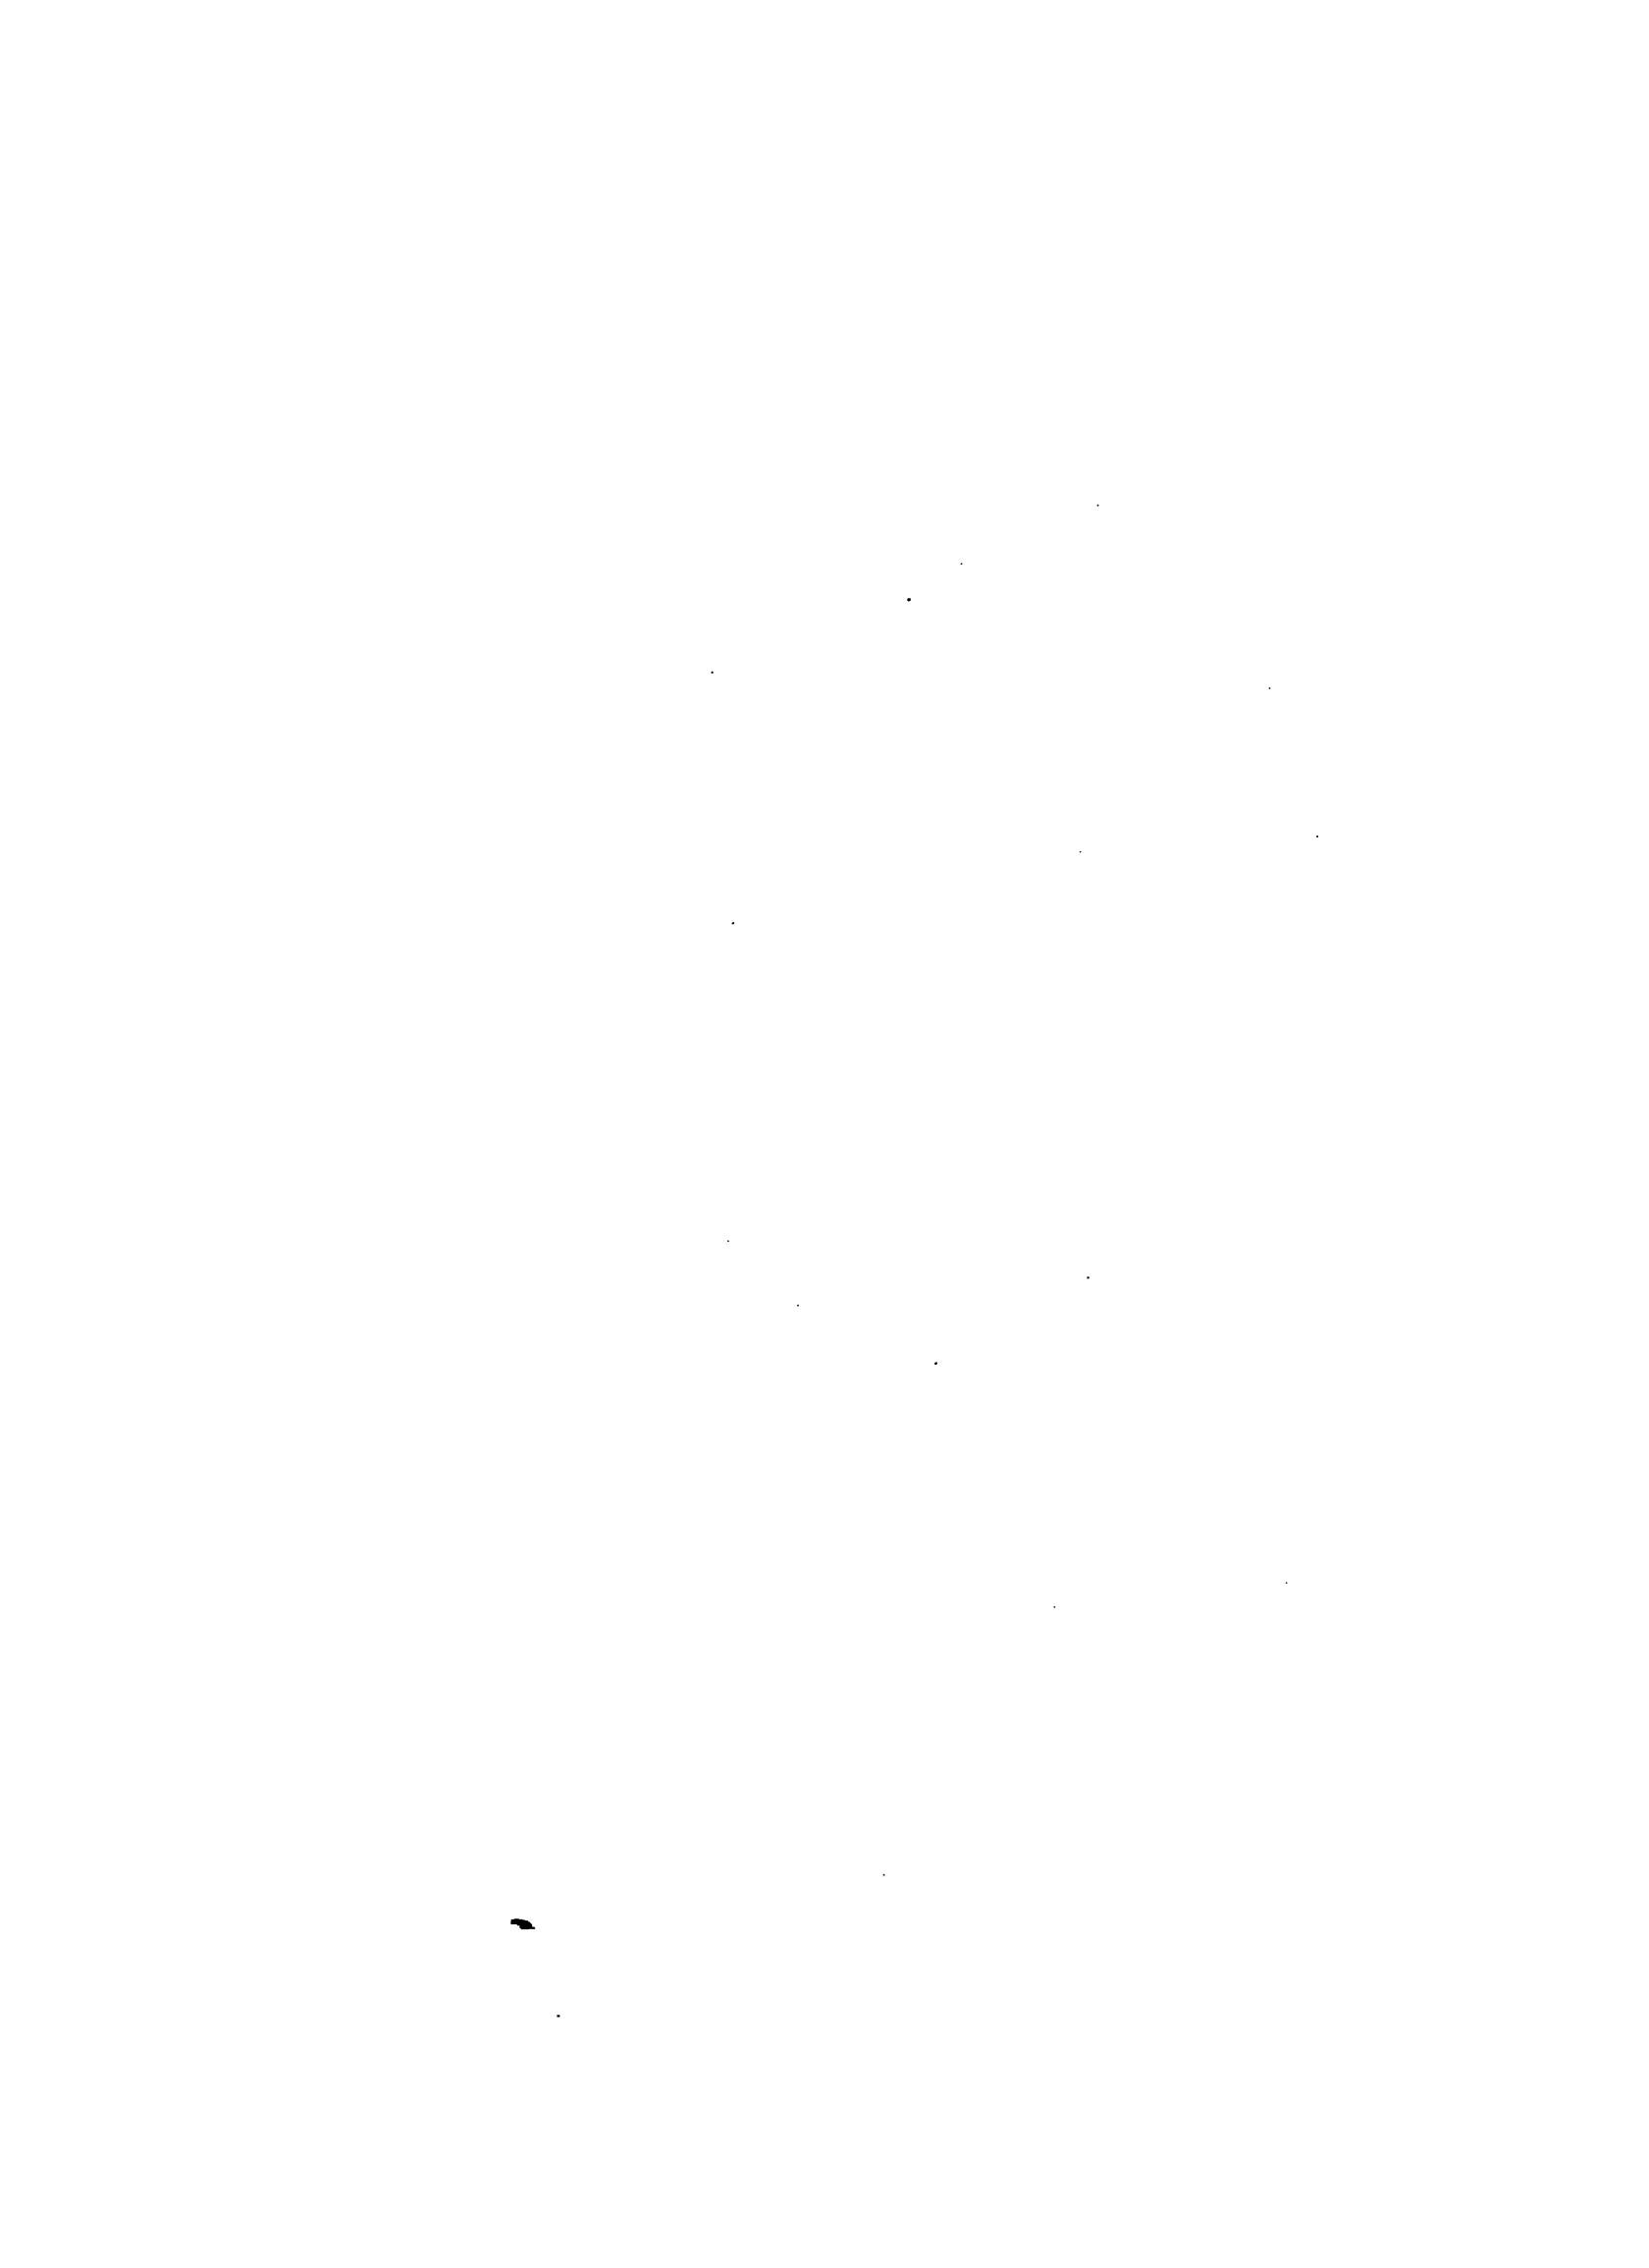

4. The mode of inserting the Rewards of Merit obtained by a Student at any public Examination shall be as follows :—

I. If a Student has obtained a Medal or Prize, the following clause shall be inserted in his Certificate, viz. “ And “ obtained, at the public Examination of ——, a Medal “ or Prize, in —— departments.”

II. If a Student at the Summer Examination be first in his Class, in one or more departments, the following clause shall be inserted, viz. “ And was at the head of his Class “ in —— departments, at the public Examination “ of ——.”

III. If a Student at either of the public Examinations should be second of his class in any two departments, third or above in three, the fourth or above in four, the fifth or above in all the departments, the following clause shall be inserted

inserted in his Certificate. "And has highly distinguished "himself at the public Examination of ——."

IV. If a Student be second of his class in any one department, third or above in two, fourth or above in three, fifth or above in four, or among the first half of his class in all the departments the following clause shall be inserted in his Certificate "And has passed the Examination of —— with great credit."

5. At every Examination, besides the lists of relative merit, a list of positive merit will be drawn up, dividing the class into those who have made great proficiency, good proficiency, proficiency, little or no proficiency, in each department; and in the general lists of Students (arranged according to their respective merits) exhibited in the College Hall, all those will be distinguished who have obtained the rank of great or good proficiency.

6. The names of those Students who shall have received the testimony of great proficiency in three or more departments, shall be included in the list of those who are "highly distinguished;" and the names of those who shall receive the testimony of great proficiency in two, or of good proficiency in four

ON THE COLLEGE SERVANTS.

The principal College Servants are :

SECT. IX.

College
Servants.

- I. The Steward.
- II. The General Inspector.
- III. The Housekeeper.
- IV The Porter.

1. The Steward shall be appointed by the Principal. He shall have a general superintendance over the Servants and Stores of the College. He shall attend the Hall and the Chapel, and deliver to the Principal and Dean the proper Lists and Reports connected with the discipline of the College. He shall take care that all impositions and orders from the Principal, Professors, and Assistant Professors, are delivered to the Students. He shall report to the Registrar, every case which may be brought to his notice, of neglect of duty, drunkenness, or other misconduct, in any of the College Servants. He shall superintend the performance of the Purveyor's contract, keep the weekly accounts, lay the same before the Registrar every week, week, and act generally as Clerk to the Registrar. For the performance of his duties he shall be more particularly amenable to the Principal, the Dean, and the Registrar.

SECT. IX.

2. The General Inspector shall be appointed by the Principal. He shall keep an accurate inventory of all the furniture and property belonging to the Company, and report daily to the Registrar every particular of repair and tradesman's work, however small, which may be required in any part of the College. He shall keep a day-book of every work done, to be copied by the Steward, for the weekly inspection of the Registrar. He shall carefully superintend both the supply, and the daily delivery of coals, to the various quarters of the College; and he shall exercise a minute and watchful inspection over all the stores of the Company. He shall also report to the Steward, respecting the conduct of the daily College Servants, and their attendance to their duty.

3. The Housekeeper shall be appointed by the Principal. She shall have a general superintendance over the female servants of the establishment. To her shall be committed the care of the Students' linen, and of all the linen belonging to the College; and she shall be responsible to the Principal (under the direction of the Registrar, and the inspection of the Steward) for the proper keeping and washing of the same. It shall also be her duty to pay attention to the Students who are ill, by sending them (under the direction of the Apothecary) such articles of diet for sick persons as cannot be procured from the College kitchen.

SECT. IX.

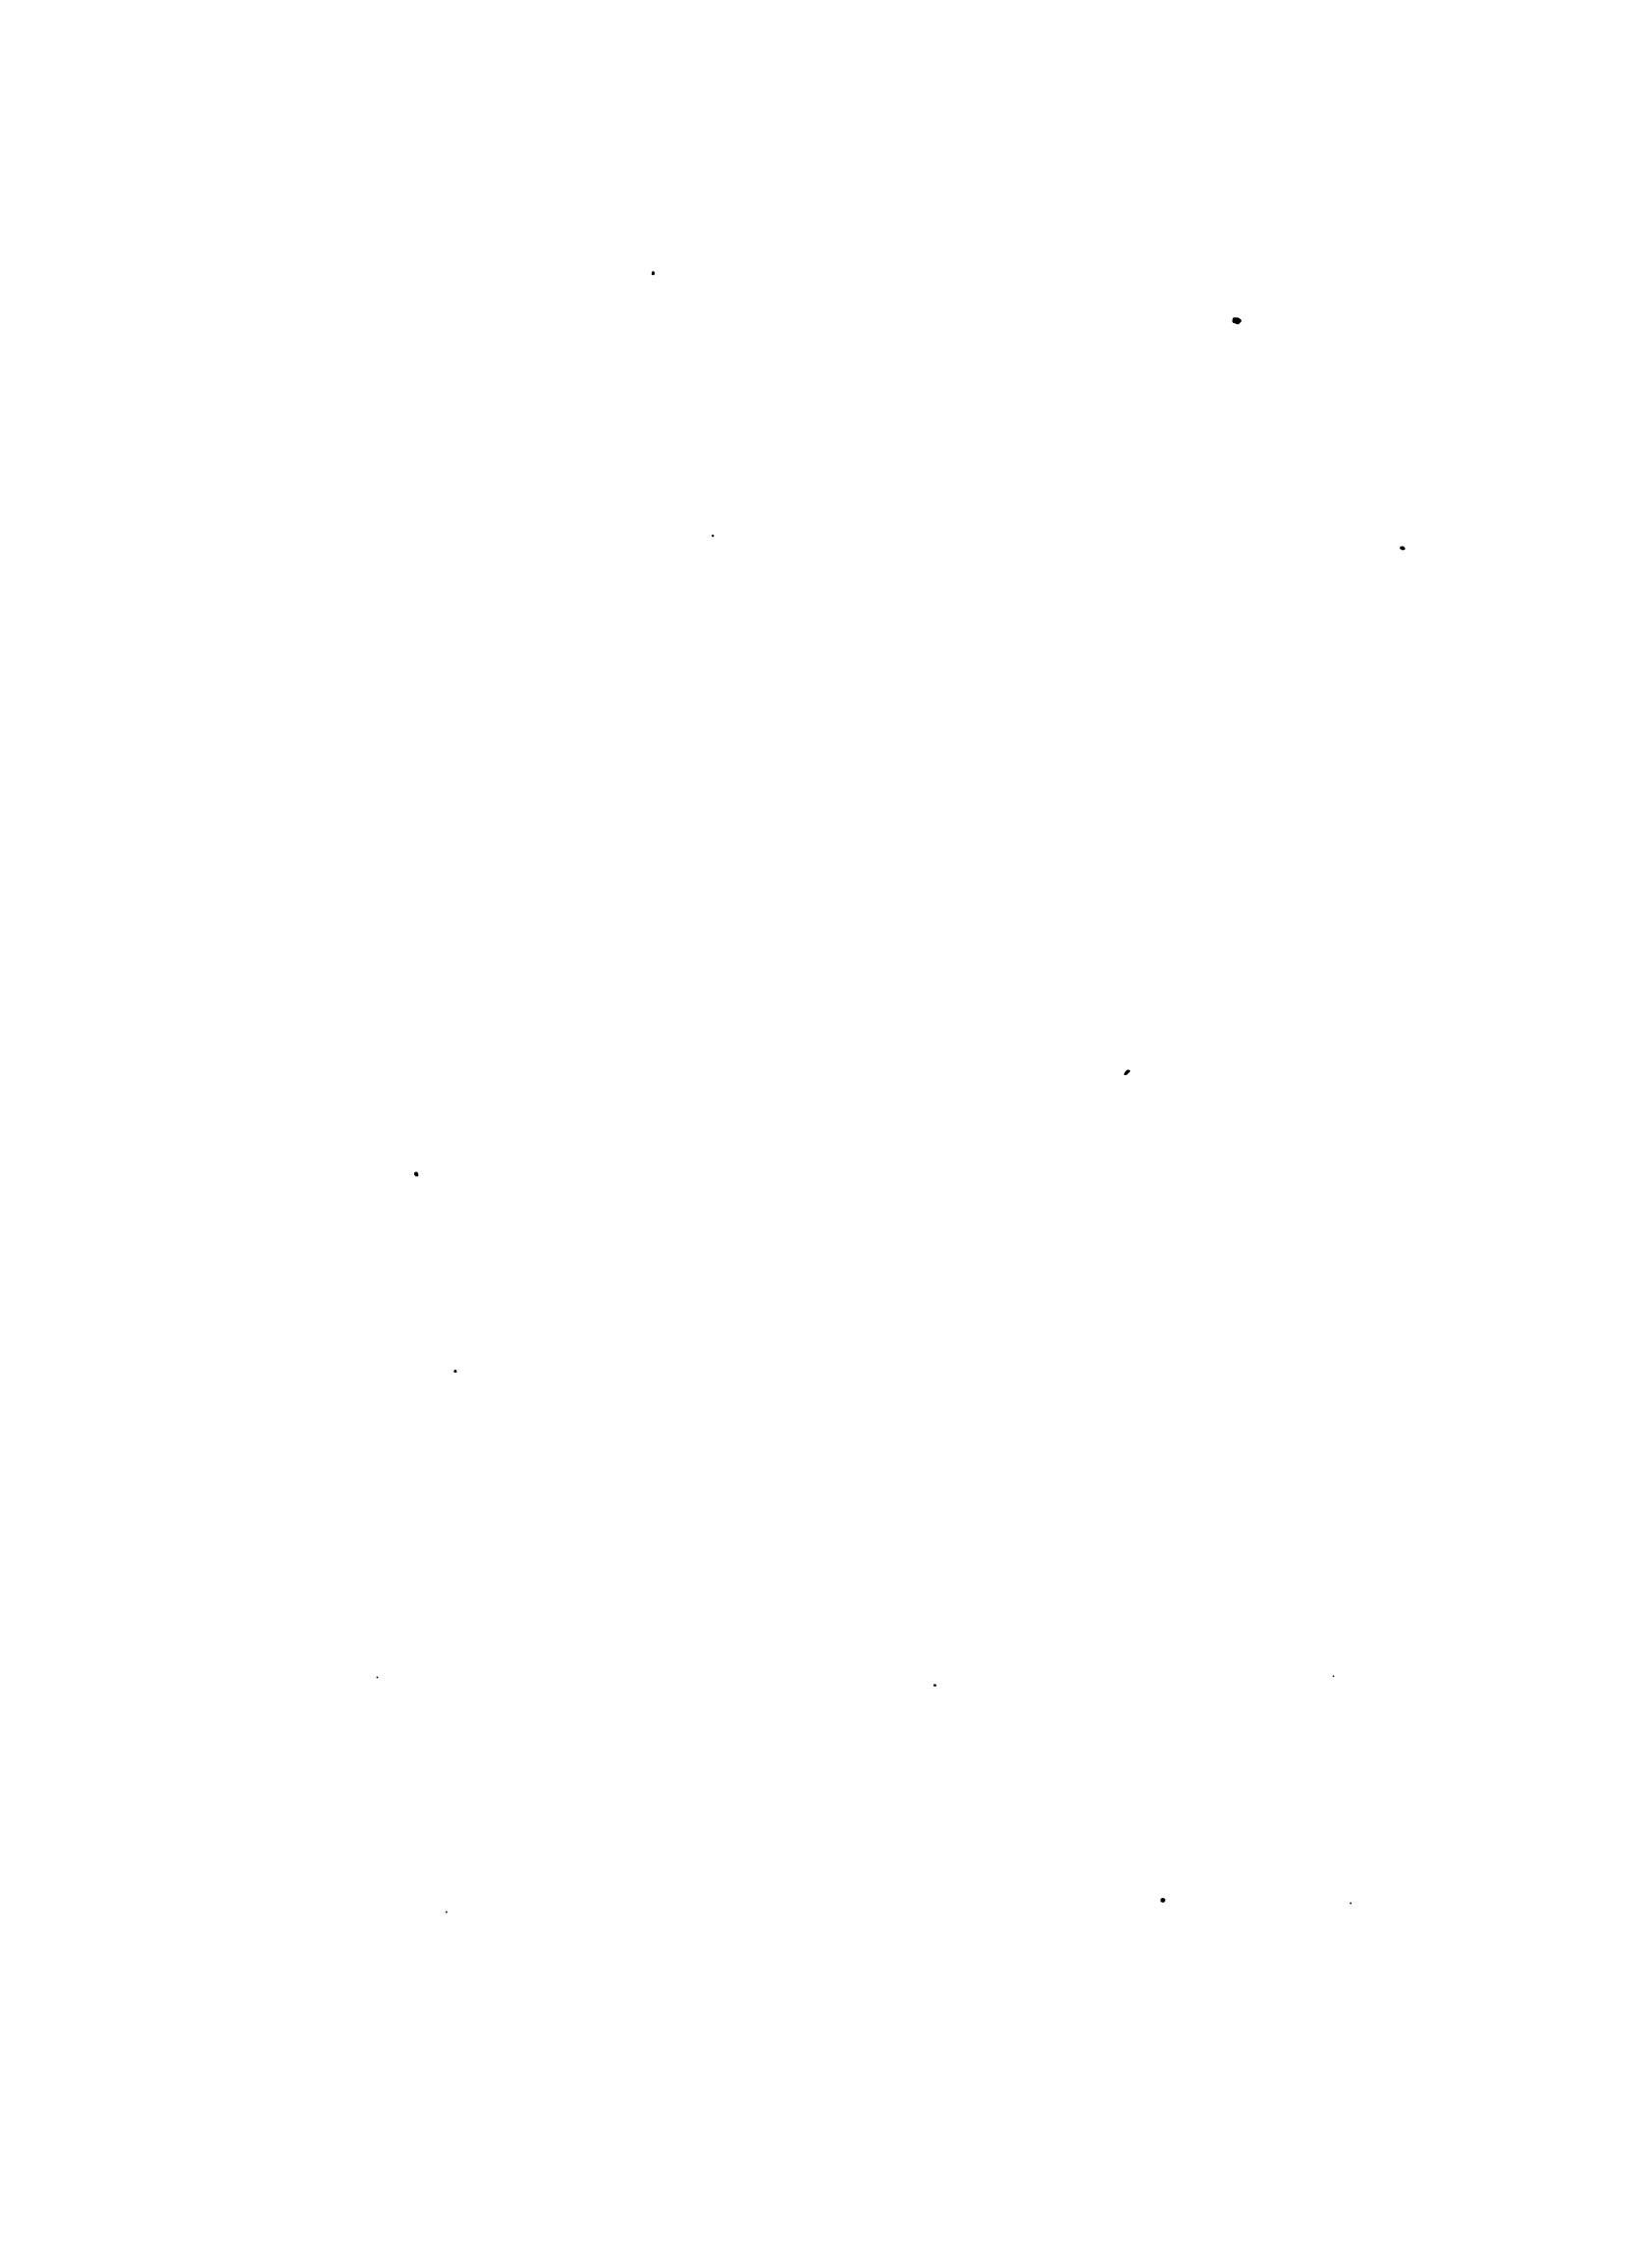

College
Servants.

4. The Porter shall be appointed by the Principal. It shall be his duty to open and shut the several public gates of the College ; to ring the bell for Chapel, Hall, and Lectures ; to see that the Quadrangle and avenues to the College are kept in proper order ; to prevent all nuisances within the College precincts, and as much as possible to hinder all improper or suspicious persons from having access to the premises. He is also to act as Superintendant of the Watchmen, and to be at the command of the Principal, the Dean, the Professors, and Assistant Professors, for all purposes connected with the good order and discipline of the College.

5. All the other Servants shall be appointed by the Principal. Their number shall be limited according to the number of Students upon the Establishment, and other circumstances of the College.

the new contract at least one month before the Summer vacation.

SECT. X.

Office of Purveyor.

2. The Furniture and Linen of the Hall and Kitchen are to be supplied by the Company, excepting such things as may be considered as articles of private convenience to the Purveyor, or Cook. Three inventories of the same are to be made out by the General Inspector; one to be left in the hands of the Purveyor, and the other two to be delivered to the Registrar and Steward.

3. At the end of every week, the Purveyor shall deliver in his account to the Steward, to be examined by the Registrar. This account shall contain the sum allowed for the Professors' table and for the Servants, together with the charge for the greatest number of Students that have been in the College during that week. When the number of Students for the Term is complete, no alteration shall take place in the number of Students charged, unless so many shall be removed from the College as to clear one whole table.
